

ROSEMARY E. GILLUM AULT

March 9, 1931 - Dec. 1, 2004

Rosemary E. Gillum Ault, 73, Galveston, went to be with the Lord at 10:28 a.m. Wednesday Dec. 1, 2004, from her home. She was born March 9, 1931, in Logansport, a daughter of Elmer and Nellie E. (Baldwin) Sherman, both now deceased. On July 5, 1986, in Logansport, she married Richard E. Ault and he preceded her in death May 4, 2002.

She graduated from Logansport High School in 1949. She retired from National Friction in Logansport after 23 years of service.

She was a member of Main Street United Methodist Church in Kokomo and a member of the Madonna Circle of the church. She was a former member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Muncie and had volunteered for St. Joseph Hospital for several years. Rosemary was an avid sports fan, but she enjoyed her family the most. She was a loving mother, grandmother and friend. She enjoyed her flowers and gardening and had a passion for life.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Lynne M. and Joe Cimino, Staunton, Va., and Melea L. and James Henry, Logansport; two sons and one daughter-in-law, William C. Gillum, Muncie, and Stephen M. and Tina L. Gillum, Logansport; one stepdaughter, Lisa Ann and husband Tom Kauble; five grandsons, Joshua, Andrew, Ben, Sam and Stevie; five granddaughters, Alicia, Katlin, Rachel, Amanda and Roslin; two step-granddaughters, Ashley and Kristin; a brother, Claude "Bud" and wife Sandy Sherman, Illinois; and a half-sister, Ethel and husband Cecil Cleveland. In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by a sister and brother-in-law, Jack and Betty Howell; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Dale and Marceline Sherman, Jack and Betty Sherman; and a half-brother, Richard Sherman.

Services are 2 p.m. Sunday at Murray-Weaver Funeral Home, 401 S. California St., Galveston, with Pastor David Herr and Pastor Harold Williams officiating. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to Main Street United Methodist Church in Kokomo, the American Cancer Society, and/or Southern Care Hospice. Envelopes will be provided at the funeral home.
