

Joyce E. Dick

March 9, 1979 Pg. 9

PRINCETON, Ind. — Joyce Elaine Dick, 23, 712 McCarty Lane, was dead on arrival at 6:40 a.m. Thursday, March 8, 1979, at Gibson General Hospital, Princeton, after an auto accident near here.

Born in Logansport Oct. 16, 1955, she was the daughter of Glen W. and Frances (Wilson) Hiatt. She was married June 11, 1977, to Edward "Joe" Dick, who survives.

She was a 1973 graduate of Lewis Cass High School and a 1976 graduate of Indianapolis Licensed Practical Nurses School. She attended Indiana University and was employed by Good Samaritan Nursing Home, Oakland City. She was a member of Miami Baptist Church in Adamsboro.

Also surviving are the parents in Walton; a grandfather, Leo Hiatt of Peru; three brothers, Glen E. Hiatt of Walton, David Hiatt of Greentown and Alan Hiatt of Japan; and a sister, Lana Osenbaugh of Portland.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in Murray Funeral Home, Galveston Chapel, with the Rev. Brian Clemons officiating. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call after 2 p.m. Saturday.