

Harry Elliott

Harry Elliott, 90, 411 W. Markland Ave., died at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday in Lucy Cole Rest Home after an extended illness.

He was born near Galveston on Sept. 16, 1878, the son of John and Margaret Elliott. He attended elementary and high school in Galveston, and moved to Greentown, where he operated a cigar store, in 1902.

On Oct. 8, 1905, he was married in Greentown to Nora Olive Jones, who preceded him in death on April 25, 1961. In 1912, he moved to Kokomo, where he worked as a carpenter contractor and also was associated in the Elliott and Miller Real Estate firm.

Surviving are two sons, Lester Elliott of Grosse Pointe, Mich., and Donald Elliott of Chicago; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be at 3 p.m. Friday in Ellers Funeral Chapel, the Rev. Luke Martin officiating. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 4-9 p.m. Thursday.
