

MABEL I. GREIDER

April 11, 1908 -- July 10, 2004

Mabel I. Greider, 96, Waterford Place Health Care Center in Kokomo, formerly of Walton, passed away at 6:50 a.m., Saturday, July 10, 2004, at Waterford Place Health Care Center in Kokomo. She was born April 11, 1908 in Cass County, the daughter of Robert E. and Eva (Shelley) Scott. On March 31, 1929 in Lincoln, she married Cecil Greider, who preceded her in death Jan. 3, 1977.

She was a homemaker. She graduated from Young America High School in 1926. She was a member of the Galveston United Methodist Church, Galveston, past member of the Deacon Grange, and former member of the Eastern Star and the Pythians.

Surviving are a son and daughter-in-law, Gordon and Judy Greider, Logansport; grandsons and wives Scott and Chris Albaugh, Galveston, and Mike and Amber Greider, Frisco, Texas; granddaughters and husbands Gail and John Crawford, Germany, Tina and Aaron Hoopingarner, Muncie, and Janet and Michael Erny, Walton; great-grandchildren Sarah and Emily Crawford, Germany, Rachel and David Hoopingarner, Muncie, and Heather, Kristen and Nicole Erny, Walton; and brother Art and wife Jo Scott, Galveston.

She was preceded in death by her husband, a daughter, Iris Jean Albaugh; two brothers, Wilmer and Robert Scott; and a sister, Goldie Scott.

Services are 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 13, 2004 at Galveston United Methodist Church, 515 S. Maple St., Galveston. The Rev. John Hrynk will officiate. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery, Friends may call from 4 to 7 p.m. Monday at Murray-Weaver Funeral Home Galveston Chapel, 401 S. California St., Galveston and one hour prior to the funeral at the church on Tuesday.

In Lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Galveston United Methodist Church.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 7/11/2004