

HELEN GRIFFIN

Oct. 10, 1921 - May 1, 2005

GALVESTON -- Helen Griffin, 83, formerly of Kokomo, went to be with her loved ones on May 1, 2005, from Las Vegas, Nev., leaving behind many people whom she loved and who loved her dearly. She was born Oct. 10, 1921, in Indianapolis.

She was well-known as Mrs. Griffins Catering & Noodles for many years.

She was a member of the American Business Women's Association and Kappa Delta Phi Sorority.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 47 years, Chester M. Griffin; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Simmons. She has three surviving children, a daughter, Lynda Day, Las Vegas, Nev.; son Robert Butcher, Naples, Fla., and son Rodger Griffin, Largo, Fla. She also is survived by five grandchildren, Jodi Summitt and Kim Fetting, both of Kokomo, Lisa Spahitz of Las Vegas, Nev., Shelly Works of Largo, Fla., and Chris Butcher of Fort Myers, Fla.; 11 great-grandchildren; 13 great-great grandchildren; and her loving dog, Hannah.

As we lay her down to rest, we smile, for the day will come and we will be reunited again. May she rest in peace till that day arrives.

Committal of ashes and graveside services will be held 1 p.m. on Saturday at the Galveston Cemetery. Pastor Doug Benham will officiate at the services.

Murray-Weaver Funeral Home in Galveston assisted the family with arrangements.
