DOROTHA B. LYNAS

June 29, 1919 - May 17, 2004

GALVESTON -- Dorotha B. Lynas, 84, Galveston, went to be with the Lord at 5:03 p.m. Monday, May 27, 2004, from her home near Galveston. She was born June 29, 1919, in Galveston, a daughter of Kathryn Gibson. On June 29, 1937, she married Roscoe Lynas. He died June 27, 1986.

She was a 1937 graduate of Galveston High School. She was employed as a financial assistant for Galveston High School for seven years and later was an administrative assistant to the superintendent of schools for Southeastern School Corporation from 1964 until her retirement in 1993.

She was a lifelong member of the Galveston United Methodist Church, which she served and supported faithfully. She enjoyed her family, church, gardening, her friends and traveling.

She was a fan of Lewis Cass basketball, both girls and boys; and a fan of Indiana University, Purdue and Michigan State basketball. She loved making candy and egg noodles for the holidays.

She is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Ron and Phyllis Lynas, Bloomington, Roger and Vicki Lynas, Williamston, Mich.; grandchildren, Jeffery Lynas, Jennifer and Ronald Sorrells, Jason Lynas, Jon and Tina Lynas, all of Bloomington, and Gregory T. and Kristen Lynas, Holland, Mich.; great-grandchildren, Christen Sorrells, Kate Sorrells, Ross E. Lynas and Ella Porter Lynas; and nieces, Judy Goldsberry, Linda Sitton and Marie Sadler.

In addition to her husband and mother, she was preceded in death by a brother, George Goldsberry.

Services are 11 a.m. Friday at the Galveston United Methodist Church, 515 S. Maple Street, Galveston, with the Rev. John Hyrnk officiating. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the Murray-Weaver Funeral Home Galveston Chapel, 401 S. California Street, Galveston, and one hour prior to service time at the church on Friday. Memorials may be made to the Galveston United Methodist Church, 515 S. Maple St. Galveston, Ind.

Source: Kokomo Tribune   Publication Date: 5/19/2004