

SHIRLEY M. RECORD

Feb. 7, 1934 - April 14, 2005

GALVESTON -- Shirley M. Record, 71, Young America, died early Thursday morning, April 14, 2005, at her home. She was born Feb. 7, 1934, in Kirklin, a daughter of Pearl W. and Osa B. (Alexander) Rayles.

She was a homemaker and had worked at Delco Electronics in the early 1950s.

She was like a mother to many of the kids in Young America. She loved to cook and enjoyed quilting, sewing and gardening. She was a good listener to family and friends that visited at her home.

She is survived by a daughter, Jo Ann Blackburn, Young America; a son and daughter-in-law, Rick and Lisa Record, Galveston; a special son, Randy and wife Cathy Griffin, Galveston; three grandchildren, Greg Blackburn, Russiaville, Ryan Record and Justin Record, both of Galveston; and a sister, Mary Varnau, Kokomo. She was a special grandma to Marley, Joe, Mason and Cora Griffin, all of Galveston. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Services are 2 p.m. Sunday at Murray-Weaver Funeral Home, Galveston Chapel, 401 S. California St., with the Rev. Doug Shook officiating. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 4/15/2005