

January 25, 2006

George M. Saylor

Feb. 25, 1923 - Jan. 23, 2006

George M. Saylor, 82, Kokomo, passed away 2:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 23, 2006, at St. Joseph Hospital. He was born Feb. 25, 1923, in Taylor Township, a son of Arthur J. and Ethel (Newcom) Saylor. On Jan. 16, 1944, in Kokomo, he married Mildred S. (Jackson) Saylor and she preceded him in death Feb. 12, 2004.

He retired from Cabot Corp. in 1983 after 40 years of service and had also been a lifelong farmer.

He loved tractors and collecting toy tractors and farm equipment.

He is survived by a daughter, Cheryl Martin, Kokomo; granddaughters Kimberly Martin and Bambi Martin, both of Kokomo; and a special nephew, Bud McGuire, Galveston. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his parents; one daughter, Lucinda; and a son-in-law, Jerry Martin.

Graveside services are 1 p.m. Thursday at the Galveston Cemetery with Jay McKinley officiating. Burial will follow. No public visitation is planned. Memorials may be made to Guardian Angel Hospice or American Heart Association.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 1/25/2006