

JERRY D. SHEPHERD

Aug. 11, 1937 --Feb. 21, 2004

GALVESTON -- Jerry D. Shepherd, 66, Galveston, went to be with the Lord at 2:18 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 21, 2004, at his home with his children by his side. He was born Aug. 11, 1937, in Kokomo, the son of Paul and Katherine (Massey) Shepherd.

He attended Kokomo High School. He worked at Trelleborg in Peru until his retirement in May 2003.

He was a member of Peru Fraternal Order of Eagles and United Steelworkers of America Local 2958.

Since his retirement, he enjoyed working with his dump truck business and helping others with driveway and dirt needs. He enjoyed doing things with his children, like going to truck and tractor pulls, and working on their vehicles, homes and equipment.

He also enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren, going to their many sports events and other activities and just being there for them.

He also enjoyed the people he worked with and spending time with them and their families. He also enjoyed restoring old tractors and working in his garage.

He is survived by his son and his companion, Jerry W. Shepherd and Bev Andrews, Galveston; his daughters and sons-in-law, Malinda and Rick Galloway, Logansport, and Brenda and Devon Harris, Logansport; his mother, Katherine Shepherd, Kokomo; his brother and sister-in-law, Mike and Linda Shepherd, Tipton; his sister, Penny Sacks, Winimac; his three grandchildren, Taylor Harris, Darrien Harris and Konner Galloway; his extended family, Linette McClaran and Kevin Stevens and their children, Alexander and Alyssa; special friends, Phil and Dee Bullick, Galveston; and five nieces and a nephew.

He was preceded in death by his father; a brother, Paul E. Shepherd; and a nephew, Arnold Shepherd.

Funeral services are 10 a.m. Wednesday at Murray Funeral Home, Highway 35 South, Galveston. Pastor Ed Brock will officiate. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the mortuary.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: 2/23/2004