

VICTOR L. WHITE

Dec. 31, 1952 - Dec. 13, 2004

GALVESTON -- Victor L. White, 51, Galveston, died early Monday morning, Dec. 13, 2004, at his residence. He was born Dec. 31, 1952, in Logansport, a son of Herman and Jeannette (Bunnell) White. On June 12, 1982, in Galveston, he married Mary E. (Miller) White and she died Sept. 7, 1999.

He was a graduate of Logansport High School and worked for Delphi/Delco in Kokomo for over 27 years as a master electrician. He had been a reserve deputy police officer for the town of Galveston at one time.

He was a member of First Baptist Church in Galveston. Victor loved antique tractors and going to tractor pulls. He owned an antique John Deere GP tractor like his Dad had on the farm. He also helped with the sound system at First Baptist Church in Galveston.

Survivors include his mother, Jeannette White, Logansport; three brothers, Bob and wife Marie White, Lafayette, Dennis White and Richard White, both of Logansport; two nephews, Tyler and Owen White, both of Lafayette; two aunts; one uncle; and a special friend, Donna. In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his father.

Services are 2 p.m. Saturday at Murray-Weaver Funeral Home, 401 S. California St., Galveston, with Rev. Warren Purcell officiating. Burial will be in Galveston Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to First Baptist Church of Galveston.
