

The body of Forrest B. Grelle, 40, who died at the hospital at Belleville, Ill., Thursday where he passed away following a surgical operation for appendicitis, arrived in Logansport this morning at 12:37 and was taken to his former home 217 West Linden avenue. Deceased was a printer by trade and for a considerable time was employed in local printing offices.

He is survived by a son, Forrest Grelle, Jr. one brother Byron G. Grelle and a sister, Miss Zora E. Grelle. His father A.W. Grelle died in this city one year ago.

A short funeral service will be held at the residence Monday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. Yoder of Wheatland Avenue M.E. church. Burial will take place in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Source: Pharos Tribune

Publication Date: 5/12/1928