

George Anthony 'Tony' Hough

Services for George Anthony "Tony" Hough, 37, of Camelot Care Center, Logansport, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday in Kroeger Funeral Home.

He died at 1:16 a.m. Monday, Sept. 20, 2004, in Indiana University Medical Center, Indianapolis.

Born March 27, 1967, in Hendricks County, he was the son of Russell and Deborah Hough.

Tony was the "Mayor" of Camelot Care Center, where he had lived since 1977. He was the first Logansport High School graduate from Camelot Care Center graduating in 1986.

He participated in Special Olympics, both locally and at the state level in Terre Haute in track and bowling. He especially enjoyed bowling.

Tony volunteered for the Cerebral Palsy and the Jerry Lewis MDA Telethons, and also volunteered for the Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive.

He attended Camp Millhouse Summer Camp, a camp for cerebral palsy patients in South Bend for the past two years.

Tony loved game shows, especially "Jeopardy," "Let's Make A Deal," and "The Price is Right."

He was an Indiana University basketball fan.

Socializing was a big part of Tony Hough.

Surviving are his guardian, Gayla Zimmerman, Logansport; his extended Camelot family, as well as the entire Logansport community.

The Rev. James Henn will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today in Kroeger Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Camelot Foundation and Special Olympics.
