Charles Omer EDMINSTER, well known former railroad man of this city, lately of Peru, died in a hospital at Logansport Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock following an illness of two years. Death was caused from paralysis.

Mr. Edminster was the son of the late Jerome and Catherine EDMINSTER and was born in Fulton county April 1, 1870, his age being nearly fifty-six years. He was united in marriage at Rochester with Miss Dora MOORE in 1903.

The wife and two children, a son and daughter, Maurice [EDMINSTER] and Helen EDMINSTER survive. One brother, William EDMINSTER, of Kokomo, also survives. Mr. Edminster was a railroad man in the employ of the Lake Erie railroad until an unfortunate accident about ten years ago and since which time he has never been in good health.

The remains were taken to Peru Wednesday evening.

Funeral services will be held from the family residence in Peru Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The Rev. E. D. HUFF of the First Baptist church will have charge of the services and the interment will be in Mount Hope cemetery, Peru.
